A retreat involves working with mind and requires commitment on the part of the participant. Please read the following carefully as you will be asked to sign to declare that you agree to these conditions & the retreat discipline. If you have any queries, concerns or further questions, please do not hesitate to call or email.

COVID-19 Information

By attending this retreat you agree to follow any COVID plan that we may have in place. This includes but is not limited to scanning the QR code or completing the attendance register on arrival, using the provided hand sanitiser, practicing social distancing if/where possible and follow any other instruction that may be given by retreat staff or the WA state government at the time.

Rules of Discipline

- Please observe the five precepts – no killing, stealing, lying, sexual contact or intoxicants.
- Please take care that your actions do not disturb other participants. (This includes singing & whistling etc.)
- Visitors are not permitted during the retreat and students should not to leave the property unless for urgent circumstances or medical attention. Please bring everything you think you might need with you.
- Do not take food or drinks (including water bottles) into the temple.
- Mobile phones, recording devices, cameras and other electronic equipment are NOT permitted in the temple. Use of mobile phones should be kept to a minimum and SHOULD NOT be used in the foyer or dining area of the temple building.
- All participants will be placed on a roster to share the food preparation and cleaning duties.
- Please be punctual and attend all sessions.
- There will be a number of sessions each day, the first session commencing at 7.00am and the last concluding at 8.30pm There will be breaks for morning and afternoon tea, as well as breakfast, lunch and dinner.
- Finishing time on the final day will mid/late afternoon.

Accommodation & Meditation Facilities

All accommodation is shared and bathrooms are also shared. Mattresses are inner sprung and we provide pillows. We also provide meditation cushions and foam mats & chairs are available for those unable to sit on the floor. If you are a local student and can supply your own bedding & towels, please indicate this on the application form. If you wish to bring your own meditation cushion/stool you are welcome to do so.

Interstate and country students – please note:

Accommodation is included from the night before the retreat begins and on the final day.

Out of Town Participants - Arrivals & Departures - Airport Pick-up & Drop-off service

Accommodation is only available from Friday July 9th, until Saturday July 31st inclusive. If you are making your own way to the centre, access to the property is available between 9.00am – 7.00pm. If you require an airport pick-up, it is only available between these times. Departure flight drop-offs are only available up until 1pm on Sunday July 31st. If you do not have the details when registering & you require this service, please provide flight details at least 10 days prior to the retreat.

Laundry

Free laundry facilities will be available during this retreat.

Candles, Incense & Smoking

Fires, candles and incense are never permitted due to the fire hazard and smoking is strictly forbidden at all times.

Food & Meals

Vegetarian meals are provided every day and may be supplemented with meat occasionally during longer retreats. Retreat food is prepared by volunteers under the guidance of the kitchen manager. Meals are nutritious and participants are encouraged to receive meals gratefully as provided. Please indicate on the registration form if you wish to be included in the meat diet. We have a range of coffee, tea and herbal teas in addition to filtered water. Whenever possible and with adequate notice, we are happy to offer alternatives such as soy/rice milk, GF bread & cereal, caffeine-free tea & coffee, however we are unable to provide individual/alternate meals.

If you require a special diet, we have limited freezer space available if you wish to bring a few pre-cooked meals. Please note that a microwave is available but there are no cooking or food preparation areas available. Please contact us prior to the retreat to discuss this if you wish to avail yourself of this option.

Food/Medical Issues/Chemist

If you suffer from food allergies or have a serious medical condition, please contact us prior to registering to discuss if/how we will be able to accommodate you.

If you require medical supplies during the retreat, please talk to the retreat manager who will organize someone to pick them up for you. Please note that other than medical supplies, we are not able to provide a personal shopping service.
